

"Look!
Do you see that?
Isn't it fine?"
That is what you hear everywhere you go in Colorado. A trip through the State is a constant succession of exclamations and interrogations. No portion of this great country of ours is so well worth visiting—so intensely interesting—so splendidly satisfying.

How to get there? Via the Rock Island, of course. Low rates all summer long. Information on request.

I Will Make a Man ...Of You... If I Make Your Clothes

If your clothes can do such a stunt—and we are told clothes make the man—I will do so.

My clothes hang right, fit right, hold their shape and wear well.

Its economy to wear goods clothes. Don't take my word for it. Try it.

I WISH EVERY FAMILY IN THE WORLD HAD A BOTTLE OF LAX-FOS!

IT'S SO GOOD

The above is a conversation which actually took place, and Thousands of Homes have taken up the Echo until the name of LAX-FOS rings in the ears of the multitudes. Its merits are synonym of health, while its taste stands for anything that's good. Children like it because it is palatable, and grown people swear by it because it cures them. Whether your case is a chronic or a mild one, Lax-Fos will give results. It cures Constipation, Indigestion and strengthens weak kidneys. Your money back if it don't.

A Fatal Runaway Near Rockport, Ky.

General Clay's Will Thrown Out of Court—The Cumberland River Open.

HAPPENINGS IN MANY PLACES

A FATAL RUNAWAY.

Rockport, Ky., Oct. 13—In a runaway near here a wagon containing Mrs. Alvis Fulkerson and her three children turned over, throwing Mr. Fulkerson and two of the children out. The third child, a ten year old boy was caught between the wagon and the ground and his arm was broken. The mother, not knowing the extent of her injuries, helped lift the wagon from the boy. She happened to look down to the ground and was horrified to see that the bone of her left leg had penetrated the skin.

She was taken home and soon became worse, and died Sunday morning. The other children will recover. The horse became frightened at a dog.

SUES ON THE NOTE.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31—Mrs. Lilla F. Kavanaugh, has sued T. B. and F. D. N. Leonard to collect a note for $613.28. T. B. Leonard is the son of S. N. Leonard, a banker at Eddyville, Ky. He borrowed about $700 from Mrs. Kavanaugh to invest in the Southern Finance and Development company, a land concern in which Peter Arlund was interested. He failed to pay and the matter went into the courts. His father then paid about $150 in the case, and, with the son, gave the note which is being sued on.

THE USUAL RESULT.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 13—A nine-year-old boy, son of Scott Hampton, a farmer, two miles in the county, was accidentally shot and fatally wounded. The bullet entered the right side just below the ribs and passed entirely through the body. The shooting was done by a son of Charles Hampton, a boy of about the same age. They were playing with an old pistol.

THE CLAY WILL BE REJECTED.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 13—The will case of the late General Cassius M. Clay was brought up in the county court here. Judge Turpin heard argument both for accepting and rejecting the will and a decision was announced rejecting it and the case was thrown out of the county court. It will be taken to the circuit court.

SWALLOWED GUM CAMPHOR.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 13—William Hancock, a farmer living near Fayetteville, attempted suicide by swallowing an ounce of camphor gum. He was relieved by the use of a stomach pump. Hancock has been in bad health for a year and says he wants to die. He is under arrest and will be tried for lunacy.

THE CUMBERLAND OPEN.

Burnside, Ky., Oct. 13—After being closed for over a month, navigation on the Cumberland river, for the gasoline freight boats, has been opened again by the heavy rains of the past few days. Overcrowded warehouses are being emptied as fast as the boats can be loaded.

DEATHS AT BOWLING GREEN.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 13—Mrs. Frank A. Holtz, a well known woman of this place, died here. Mrs. Emma Cain, died of tuberculosis. The remains were taken to her former home at Elizabethtown for burial.

SHOOTING OVER RENT.

Midway, Ky., Oct. 31—In a difficulty over rent money William Messer shot and seriously wounded Ligo Daugherty at his home here. Messer gave himself up and the examining trial will be held Tuesday.

DEATH IN CHRISTIAN.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 13—M. M. Powell, a prominent farmer and leading citizen of the Pilot Rock neighborhood, died of consumption. He was 54 years old and leaves a family.

A FINE FRONT—The front of the Nagel jewelry store at Broadway and Third streets is being remodeled, and when the work is finished it will be one of the most attractive in the city. The plate glass windows and doors have been moved back several feet leaving quite a pretty alcove facing the street. The work is not interfering with the firm's business.

BROUGHT NEW GIRLS

A Threatened Strike at the Telephone Office off.

East Tennessee Special Agent Came in Today with New Exchange Girls.

OPERATORS RETURN TO WORK

A threatened strike of exchange girls at the East Tennessee Telephone company was nipped in the bud this morning and now all is lovely at the exchange building on South Fourth street and all but three of the girls are in their old places.

Yesterday, according to the statement of the local management, Mrs. M. A. Fleming, formerly chief operator of the New Orleans exchange, arrived to take the position of chief operator of the local exchange, succeeding Mrs. Peacock, who has been chief operator for the past few years. Mrs. Peacock is one of the best and most popular chiefs the company ever had, but her health has been failing for the past two months until she became physically unable to discharge the duties and it was deemed expedient, for the improvement of the service, to install a new chief.

The young ladies of the local exchange are very fond of Mrs. Peacock, and said they would quit work if she left. Incidentally they made a demand for $25 a month instead of $20. Some of the best local operators get $25 while the long distance operators are paid more. As a result all of them but two quit work, but went back temporarily on request of Manager Joynes. Last night Mr. C. L. Meyers, of Nashville, special agent of the company, arrived with seven young ladies from Nashville. Misses Della Garner, F. Katie Monell, Agnes Metta, Emma Smith and Daisy Hitchcock. In addition five girls were started from Louisville, five from Nashville and ten from other places and would have been brought on had it not been learned that the strikers had reconsidered and agreed to go back to work.

Three of them, alleged to have been ringleaders in the threatened strike were discharged, it was stated at headquarters, and the young ladies from Nashville will take their places. All seven will remain here for the present and the service will be greatly improved.

A reporter was informed that the girls employed at the telephone exchanges are all nice young ladies, but that the commercial training does not quite fit them to run the company's business for it, and that a change in the operating department will be made whenever deemed best for the service.

One of the young ladies who quit work was asked for a statement of their side and said that when they learned that their chief operator was to be discharged they demanded the increase mentioned, or their old chief, and that all but one left the board. Manager Joynes came up and told them that they were unjust to themselves and the company and that if they would return to work he would take it up with the company. They supposed he did, and the company decided to bring on new girls.

So this morning the new girls were brought in, and when they were asked what they intended to do, all but three agreed to return to work.

"IT GOES RIGHT TO THE SPOT"

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. J. R. Smith, proprietor Smith House, Tenaha, Tex., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

STILL IN THE LOCKUP—The trial of James Webb, of Evansville, Ind., and Will Johnson, of Hopkinsville, the negroes arrested on a charge of working a "skin game" near the market place Saturday, will probably take place tomorrow. They were caught Saturday by Officers Clark and Johnson, and are in the lockup.

Mrs. Joseph Lutz and children, of Mound City, returned home yesterday morning after visiting Captain and Mrs. Mike Williams, of Third and Madison streets.
